Preface:

*"The lips of wisdom are closed, except to the ears of understanding."
– The Kybalion –*

My mom (Julie) and I (Juliette) are glad you decided to read this book. That makes you one of us instantly. So, welcome to the Illuminatista Circle of Success Seekers who support each other in their quest for a better life.

This book – ‘Illuminatista: Mind Alchemy’ – has lots of do’s and don’ts. It is filled with statements like "We are this...; We are not that...; We do so and so...; We don’t do so and so...; You should do this... and You shouldn’t do that..." etc. However, hidden in those seemingly ordinary statements are words of wisdom and success secrets that only True Seekers will discover. The simple or common-sense wisdom in this book is an accumulation of age-old traits garnered from years of observation and study of the Rich, the Poor, the Happy, the Sad, the Famous, the Notorious, the Winner, the Loser, the Bold, the Coward, the Strong, the Weak, the Stable, the Dysfunctional, the Religious, the non-Religious, the Agnostic, and so on, including extensive research on the Occult, Religion, Metaphysics, Spirituality, Psychology, Philosophy, Sociology, etc.

This book is part of the ‘Illuminatista’ series by Juliette and Julie Williams. We encourage you to also read "Illuminatista: God 2.0: The Controversial Wisdom of Dr. Julie Williams." It sets the tone and lays the foundation for any other writings that will be in the series. This book is not a direct sequel to the above-mentioned book, but leans strongly on the radical thinking and ‘anti-religious’ views expressed in that one. For anybody who wishes to be considered a serious candidate for success and a student of the wisdom divulged in this book, that book is required reading. (One other required reading is ‘Joan of Arc: A Role Model

For Achievers – How to Spiritually Achieve Whatever Your Mind Can Conceive, by Julius Miracle Williams. Ph.D. The book has versions for Believers, Metaphysicians, and then adapted for Witches and Pagans by Dr. Isis Day; any of the versions you prefer is OK.)

Also, this book – ‘Illuminatista: Mind Alchemy’ – is sort of the official Manual for readers of the Illuminatista series who wish to acquire the unique wisdom necessary to achieve Money, Fame, Love and Success At The Speed Of Light. Ultimately, it is nothing but a guideline or code of conduct and what is expected of you if you truly wish to win in the game of life. (The publishers have agreed to endeavor to provide Free eBook updates to readers. If you're interested in the Illuminatista series but can't afford any of the books, there might be some help available. Visit the Illuminatista website for more information or to contact us.)

Once again, welcome! May the joy, insight and wisdom you gain from reading this book bring you untold success in all corners of your life! We wish you the best in your good endeavors, and hope you Win At The Speed Of Light! Good luck!!

*"Everyone deserves a successful life and a happy ending materially, socially, career-wise and

– Dr. Isis Day –

Introduction:

In the beginning, as you grew up, you had your own plans and expectations as to how you'd want your life to unfold, but life itself had its own plans for you which for the most part continues to run in the opposite direction from yours.

Life, with all its twists and turns, comes at you very fast, long before you're ready for it, and it strikes so hard with everything it's got. Sometimes it seems like the entire zodiac coordinates have re-aligned themselves and ganged up against you with well-knit inescapable conspiracies. The bills don't miss, coming faster than you can cope with, and would keep coming long after you die. You struggle, play catch-up, rob the Peter of your activities and finances to pay the Shylock-Paul of your life who constantly demands his pound of your flesh, your money or your life, and before you know it you're wishing you had a chance to start all over and do everything right. By the time you think you now have the wisdom and experience to fix things and set your whole universe right, you realize the candle of life is just about to quit on you, and you're sadly face to face with all the 'could-have' and 'would-have' gazillion things you 'should have' done differently. Then your friends ask: "What's up dude?" and you dejectedly reply: "Life happens, man, that's all, life happens."

Yep! Stuff happens! But as if that isn't enough, it seems you're so invisible or insignificant to some people, and most of them just move in and out of your life like the wind, some regrettable, and lots others heartbreaking, and for whatever mysterious reasons we hardly let go, if ever, of both the good and bad experiences, but especially the nasty ones. So your mantra becomes: "Why is life such a bitch?" or "Why is life so hard?" or "Why is life so mean; why me?" and many other such lamentations.

Then come those who can't wait to take advantage of your predicament. They bombard you with esoteric this, esoteric that; mystic this, mystic that; occult this, occult that; and now they want you to spend some years in India, or some Tibetan Monastery, or some isolated place up in the mountains before you can 'find yourself' and maybe begin to enjoy the good things of life and cope with everything with ease. And then what? You come down from the mountains and find that the demons you were running from have grown more tails, more horns and metallic wings, and are even more determined than ever to get you. "Oh no, not again! How do I deal with these demons? I think I need some coffee," you'd say. Ah! You've forgotten already that up in the mountains you were forbidden to take coffee or alcohol. So now you're thinking you probably didn't learn all you needed to learn, and maybe this time you need to go farther East for another few years and become a guru. A guru at what; running from life? Well, you could run all you can but you can't hide. By the time you're done running and think you now have all the right answers the world would have moved on without you, and you're already very old and designing your own coffin and drafting your own epitaph; and of course no use writing a Will because there's nothing to leave behind for anybody except your lamentations and a few motivational or religious books and relics. So now you're face to face with reality, not the one they told you is a dream, the other one, the real one. Hey, don't point any accusing fingers – nobody stole your thunder; you simply lost your mojo. Look around you – you don't need a rocket-scientist to prove this to you; it's happening all around us, every day.

But, hold on; if you're still standing and not six-feet-under it means all is not lost yet. Don't worry, you're not alone; you never had a choice at anything – none of us did or does – and nobody ever will. We all wish we got wiser much sooner. (I do! My Goodness; I still sadly can't believe I spent a good chunk of my life in naïveté, even though I learned some valuable lessons that I wouldn't give up for any price.) But we can at least all do our best to make our time on earth count for us and those we care for, and the world at large; if for nothing else we'd know we tried our best and didn't just surrender as cheap victims of the cosmos.

"Nothing can really hurt us except our own despair."

– Arthur C. Benson –

We are here to give you as much tips and support as possible. Get on board now and let's strive together to make that long awaited liberating difference.

We're here to set you free, not by waving a magical wand at you and chanting some abracadabra, rather by giving you simple but radically controversial tips that will hopefully point you in the right direction and help you liberate yourself. Only You Can Set Yourself Free – not even all the supposed gods of religion put together can do that for you; no force in the universe can do that for you – it is the one mission that you, and you alone, must accomplish. Every other thing or person outside of you can only nudge you on at best.

A second chance at loving would be nice; a second chance at making money and living a healthier life would be nice too. We could all use a second chance at everything; but who's gonna give it to us? I know just one person, the right person, the one and only person who could give you that chance you've been wishing for – You! If you don't do it, if you don't give yourself the chance, well, good luck with finding someone else who'd do that for you.

The Four Cardinal Points of Desire:

We believe that nearly all the major things people ever wish for would fall under four major categories. So our discourse will circle around these areas of life on earth to help you develop the right attitude, disposition, perspective and action required for success in these areas. They are:
